THE UNION.

BY HENRY W. LONGFELLOW.

Thou, too, sail on, O ship of State!
Sail on, O Union, strong and great!
Humanity with all its fears,
With all the hopes of future years,
Is hanging breathless on thy fate!

We know what master laid thy keel,
What workmen wrought thy ribs of steel,
Who made each mast and sail and rope;
In what a forge and what a heat,
Were shaped the anchors of thy hope!

Fear not each sudden sound and shock;
'Tis of the wave and not the rock;
'Tis but the flapping of the sail,
And not a rent made by the gale!
In spite of rock and tempests roar,
In spite of false lights on the shore,
Sail on, nor fear to breast the sea!
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers, our tears,
Our faith triumphant o'er our fears,
Are all with thee—are all with thee!

EXTRACTS FROM MESSAGE.

We take the following extracts from the Message of the President, (Rev. A. B. Clark,) to the Local United States Senate. In view of the present condition of our national affairs, it will, we think, be read with interest. We shall make no comments thereon, allowing each reader to draw his own conclusions.

In another aspect of the case, our country's condition must fill us with sadness and distress. The excitement incident to a general election, has not, as formerly, passed off, after the result was known, except in the Northern States. In these, the election itself, was perhaps, with less excitement than is usual; and since, the accustomed calm has followed, and the acquiescence in the result, apparently unanimous. In several of the Southern States, however, this has not been the case. With them an intense excitement has followed, which has been fanned, and fed until the almost entire popular mind is in a blaze. The result has been the stagnation of business, a monetary crisis, commercial pressure, the destruction of confidence in the business circles, Bank suspensions, the formal withdrawal of one State (South Carolina) from the Federal Union, the calling of Conventions in other States to consult upon the propriety and demands for a similar course. Such is the present sad, I may add, alarming condition, of our country, and the danger of the Union.—This is the condition of things about which you are to consult, and a remedy for which ought to be sought speedily as possible.

It is not for me, at the stand-point from which I am called to view these things, to give them an ex-parte consideration. My rule of judgment shall be the Constituton which knows no North, no South, no Sectional interest; but designs the good of the whole. And it shall be my constant aim, and earnest desire, to keep clearly within the range of its provisions and teachings, in all that shall be recommended for your consideration, and for your enactment: and to put my own prejudices, and political predilictions, under my feet.

In providing for the present crisis, it does not appear to me, that we are called upon to inquire into the causes of existing troubles, any farther than, they may throw light upon our path, in seeking the remedy, nor to condemn one portion of the Union, or any particular States, to the exculpation of others. There may have been guilt, or at least imprudencies on all hands. This however I do not undertake to affirm. But of this one thing all sober minded, reflecting men, who are cognizant of the facts, must be persuaded, viz:—That the chief difficulty, and great cause of excitement, has grown out of a misunderstanding of the popular mind in one section of the Union, toward the other. The elevation of a particular man to the Presidency has been seized upon by our fellow-citizens in some of the Southern States, as the evidence that all who assisted in his election, hold the extreme views, which they attach to a particular name; while the truth is, that at least forty-nine fiftieths of those who voted for Abraham Lincoln, are almost as far from the extreme notions which Southern brethren attach to them, as they are themselves. While many may be opposed to Slavery, they are yet most violently opposed to intervention, or interference with the rights of the States where it exists; and would any day go to their aid to quell Slave insurrections, or defend them in their Constitutional rights with their lives. On the other hand, extremists at the North ought to know, and would know, if they took pains to inform themselves, that many at the South, are just as fully convinced, as they are, of many of the evils and objections, and drawbacks which attach themselves to the system of domestic Slavery; and would gladly be rid of it, if they could. But with them, it is, for the present at least, a physical, a pecuniary, and a moral necessity. They ought not therefore to be stigmatized, abused, or maligned for its existence; and should be protected in their Constitutional rights, with regard to it; and I verily believe will be protected.

There is no real cause then, for the present calamitous state of affairs in our country.—And if the true state of the popular mind was known, or could in any way be tested, it is believed that this statement would be fully verified. To test this, let all the Personal Liberty bills and infringements of Congressional enactments, be speedily wiped from the Statute Books of the North; and Secession movements stop, or at least be delayed, in the South, and it is confidently asserted, that the people will approve; and harmoney, peace and Union be restored to our distracted country.

But the question of actual Secession meets us here. South Carolina has seceded in form.—Her right, or the right of any other State to do so, may well be questioned. The Constitution, which is the bond of Union, recognizes no such right; and clearly implies that no such event was ever contemplated by the framers of it. The reason given in the preface to the Constitution for its formation and adoption, is evidence of this. Its language is, "We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union"—that is more perfect than the original, "Articles of Confederation" which were called by Congress, "Articles of Confederation, and perpetual Union between the United States of America." Yet the Constitution was to form a more perfect Union. And among the declared objects of it was, to secure the blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our posterity. The inference is clear, that secession was never contemplated by the Constitution, either with the framers of it, or the States by whom ratified, and acknowledged. There can be no such thing under the Constitution as Secession, according to the true signification of the term. By whatever style she may designate her action, South Carolina is guilty of a Revolutionary act. There is no other way to break the bonds which bind together the Federal Government.

She and others claim however that the Sovereignity of the States, implies their right to secede. By no means, we answer; their sovereignity in so far, was voluntarily yielded, in entering into the compact under the Constitution; which they were perfectly competent to do; as in other parallel cases which might be adduced. Otherwise we have really never had a government; and our Union has never been any more than a Voluntary Association, for prudential purposes; to be ruptured at the whim, or by the will of any one of its component parts. In opposition to this radical view, we cite the oath of office, binding all the Federal officers, including Congressmen, to support the Constitution, in preference to the Constitutions even of their own States, should they in any particular conflict. And according to this view of the subject, Senators and Members of the House from seceding States are bound, according to their oath of office, either to oppose secession or resign their seats.

The immediate plea for secession, is, the election of a particular man to the Executive Chair of the Union. Not that he has been elected in violation of the manner prescribed by the Constitution, but that he has been thus elevated by a strictly sectional vote. The allegation is true. But then, does it furnish a sufficient ground for such a radical and revolutionary act, as the violent rupture of the solemn and perpetual compact into which the States have entered; and fraught with such fearful consequences as must follow? Certainly not; at least until the man thus elevated, shall by some overt act, give just occasion for such a solemn step. But then it is contended that his antecedents, give just ground to expect such occasion. To this it may replied, that, there is a wide difference of opinion as to what his past course foreshadows. And again, it may be suggested, that a man may speak and act very differently under the sanctions and responsibilities of the Presidential office, from what he has done, as the citizen of a particular State; as a political disputant, or as a public lecturer. Besides, it does not seem to have occurred to the advocates of secession, that the vote which elected Abraham Lincoln to the Presidency, is a sectional one, by their own course. The vote was not a sectional one in the North. The election was warmly contested. Each candidate had his warm and numerous supporters, and especially the favorite candidate of the Southern States. But not so in the secession States. Their vote was strictly sectional. Their own act therefore is made the plea for declaiming in favor of a revolutionary course. The charge of sectionalism lies at their own door.

But what now is the relative position of South Carolina to the Federal Government; she having formally passed the secession ordinance? It is evidently that of a refractory or insubordinate child, or member of a family, subject therefore to the rod, or otherwise as prudence, wisdom, mercy, love, or forbearance, one or all, may dictate, under parental authority. The Executive is bound under the solemn sanctions of an oath before God and his Country "to take care that the laws be faithfully executed." And for this is authorized by the act of Congress, when all other means shall have failed, to call out the militia, and employ the army and navy. But as the secession ordinance is harmless in itself, it is deemed best to wait for an overt act, such as seizing the public property—the conversion, to State purposes, of imposts, or non payment of revenues, before decissive steps shall be taken. And then, to coerce, only as the very last resort. When, however, the necessity shall come—and God grant that it never may—be assured, the Constitution shall be kept inviolate; to accomplish which, the Executive will confidently rely upon the aid and co-operation of Congress. That such a line of conduct under the circumstances supposed, would be Constitutional and just, is according to the opinions of the wisest jurists and statesmen of our country; as for example Marshall and Madison; and a precedent for it, would be had in the course of Andrew Jackson in 1832-3. But we repeat, this ought, and so far as the present Executive is concerned, it will be the very last resort.—Yet if the stern necessity be forced upon us, it must, it will be met. Of your own specific duty in the premises, as a co-ordinate branch of the Federal Government, your wisdom, guided by the Constitution, must dictate; and it is hoped you will give it your earliest, most candid and dispassionate consideration.

In regard to the propriety of the Senators from South Carolina holding their seats under existing circumstances, I have only to say, that they should by no means be denied that privilege. To do so, would be to recognize the right of the State to secede; which ought in no form to be done. Let them reconcile the inconsistency of it, if there be any.

It is hoped that the agitation of the Slavery question in Congress, will cease. For twenty-five years or more it has served as a bone of contention. No good has resulted to the slave; much harm, it may prove to the country. And why should there be any difficulty about it? The compact between the States was entered into while it existed in a majority of them. This was known to all. The Constitution recognizes the right of property in slaves; protects the rights of the States where it exists, and enforces their return, if fugutives from justice or labor, flee to the free States. This is amply sufficient, if the law be enforced or obeyed. And why should not all obey? It is but a compliance with the compact into which they have voluntarily entered. Not to obey, therefore, in the mildest aspect of the case, is insubordination, and ought to be reprimanded, and if persevered in, severely punished.

But if it still be insisted, that the existing laws are inadequate for sufficient protection to State rights, and to prevent agitation, then, I commend to your consideration, the propriety of an additional Constitutional guarantee, on this subject.—so that it may be binding and perpetual—either by a Compromise Line, or in any other way your wisdom may dictate.

With Spain, they are complicated, but not dangerous. This complication has, doubtless, grown out of an effort, and the desire of some of our citizens, and perhaps some of the States, to add to the Union Cuba. I can not but look upon that project with disfavor: first as calculated to embroil us with Spain, and second, because of the present unsettled state of the public mind in our own country; but especially as the doctrine of secession has so many and powerful advocates, at present. If the doctrine of secession be true, the government might pay Spain twenty millions for Cuba to-day—she secedo to-morrow—and acknowledge allegiance to Spain again the day after. The result would be a loss of twenty millions of treasure or a war with Spain, which might cost double that amount.

Address by Gov. Hicks of Maryland.

Governor Hicks has published an address to the citizens of Maryland, giving his reasons for refusing to convene the Legislature. It abounds in most emphatic Union sentiments. The following are extracts:—

I firmly believe that a division of this Government would inevitably produce civil war.—The Secession leaders in South Carolina and the fanatical demagogues of the North have alike proclaimed that such would be the result, and no man of sense, in my opinion, will question it. What could the Legislature do in this crisis if convened to remove the present troubles which beset the Union?

Latest Secession Items.

Three hundred marines have been ordered to Washington, in addition to the four companies of Flying Artillery, for the purpose of protecting the public property against all possible depredations, should any number of men at the South be foolish enough to enter into Governor Wise's scheme to prevent the inauguration of Lincoln or destroy the Capitol.

Sixty soldiers of the Cavalry corps have been ordered from Carlisle Barracks to the Arsenal at Harper's Ferry to protect that place from falling into the hands of the Secessionists.

The President has appointed Mr. McIntyre, of York, Pa., Collector of Customs at Charleston, South Carolina, in room of Mr. Colfax, who is a secessionist, and has announced his intention of collecting the revenues for the new Confederacy of South Carolina. A fleet of vessels has been ordered to that port, in order to protect Mr. McIntyre in the discharge of his duties.

Great excitement was created on Friday and Saturday last, by the rumor that the Secessionists had beseiged Fort Sumpter and captured it, and that Major Anderson had been mortally wounded. Happily these rumors proved incorrect. Fort Sumpter has not been beseiged, and it is not likely that it will be. The Steamer, Star of the West, sailed from Brooklyn, N. Y., on Saturday afternoon last, with a supply of provisions and 250 men to the aid of Major Anderson. She would arrive at her destination on Tuesday afternoon. Up to the time of this writing we have not heard of her arrival, but may hear something before we go to press.—The steamer was chartered and the men and provisions forwarded by order of Gen. Scott.

President Buchanan has announced his intention to ride down the avenue with Mr. Lincoln on the 4th of March next, the day of the inauguration of the latter, and Chief Justice Taney says that he will travel from the Atlantic to the Pacific to administer the oath of office to Mr. Lincoln, in case it cannot be done in Washington city. The statesmen, patriots and all the good men of the country, are for the Union.

The Government troops, stationed at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas, have been ordered to Baltimore, via St. Joseph, Chicago and Pittsburgh.—The force consists of two companies of Light Artillery, comprising 210 men with 130 horses.—They will likely pass through this place to-day or to-morrow. The people of the North and the General Government, have been counseling for peace and refusing to take any warlike steps, but now that such a course has failed to secure the desired end, the disunionists and secessionists are likely to be crowded a little with Government troops and their disreputable designs frustrated.

Special despatches to the New York Tribune say that no order was given or contemplated for sending the revenue cutter, Harriet Lane, to Charleston on a revenue or any other mission, and all speculations to that effect are entirely unfounded. It is evident from this that all reports in reference to the actions of the General Government and the secessionists are not at all times to be relied on, and should be received with allowances.

On Monday last, Congress passed the following resolution by a vote of 124 yeas to 56 nays:

Resolved, That we fully approve of the bold and patriotic act of Major Anderson in withdrawing from Fort Moultrie to Fort Sumter, and the determination of the President to maintain that fearless officer in his present condition—and we will support the President in all constitutional measures to enforce the laws and preserve the Union.

Mr. Thompson, Secretary of Interior, has resigned, on the ground that after the order to reinforce Major Anderson was commanded on December 31st, there was a distinct understanding that no troops should be ordered to the South without the subject being considered and decided by the Cabinet. Notwithstanding these facts, the Secretary of War, without the knowledge of Secretary Thompson, sent two hundred and fifty men in the Star of the West, to re-inforce Major Anderson. Not learning of this till Tuesday morning, he forthwith resigned.

A company of U. S. Marines, numbering 40 muskets, under Lieut. Howell, took possession of Ft. McHenry, yesterday, raising the stars and stripes.

THE VERY LATEST.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 9, 1860.

The Steamship Star of the West while endeavoring to enter Charleston harbour, about daylight this morning, was fired upon by the garrison on Morris Island and also by Fort Moultrie. The Steamer put about and went to sea. We have not been able to learn whether the Steamer or any person on board of her was injured. The belief is that no injury was sustained by either the Boat or those on board.—Fort Sumpter did not respond to the fire of the South Carolinians. Our citizens were drawn in crowds to our wharves early this morning in consequence of the frequent reports of cannon from the seaboard. Some twelve or fifteen reports were heard—many proceeded from the works on Morris Island.

Lieut. Hall, of Fort Sumpter, came over to the city about 11 o'clock, with a flag of truce. He repaired to the quarters of the Governor followed by crowds of citizens. He was in secret communication with Governor and Council for two hours. At 2 o'clock he was sent in a carriage with the Governor's aids to the wharf and returned to Fort Sumpter. Object of mission not known—supposed relating to the firing on the Star of the West. The facts have not transpired, but we learn from high authority that they are of the most threatening character.—People intensely excited. No demonstration against Lieut. Hall.

The Mississippi State Convention to-day passed an ordinance declaring the immediate secession of Mississippi from the Federal Union. It was adopted by a vote of 84 yeas to 15 nays. Nothing more of importance.

GEN. WOOL ON THE CRISIS.—Major General Wool, of the U. S. Army, next in command to Gen. Scott, has written several letters taking strong ground in favor of the Union and in favor of susthining Anderson, in his position at Fort Sumpter, and earnestly urging that a firm ground be adopted to put down rebellion. He declares that if Fort Sumpter be surrendered to the secessionists, in twenty days two hundred thousand men would be in readiness to take vengeance on all who would betray the Union into the hand of its enemies.

U. S. SENATOR.—Edgar A. Cowan, of Westmoreland county, was elected United States Senator, on Tuesday last, to take the place of Wm. Bigler, whose term expires on the 4th of March next. This result does not exactly please the more conservative element of the opposition to the Democracy, east of the mountains, as Mr. C. is considered a little too radical in his views.

☞ Gov. Packer's message is a sound document, so far as his views in relation to the present distracted state of our national affairs are concerned. Had we the room to spare we would publish it. We presume, however, that all who are anxious to see it will get it in some of the political papers.

☞ The order for the removal of the guns from Pittsburgh, which created so much excitement some two weeks since, has been countermanded by Mr. Holt, present Secretary of War. The information created great enthusiasm in Pittsburgh.

CURTIN'S CABINET.—It is understood that Gov. Curtin has appointed the following named gentlemen as members of his cabinet:—Col. Eli Slifer, Secretary of the Commonwealth, and Hon. Samuel A. Purviance, Attorney General.

Letter from Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 8th, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—For several days past, the all-prevailing topic has been the United States Senator question. As the contest drew to a close, it was conceded very willingly, by all outsiders, and would have been willingly backed up with money by the friends of Mr. Wilmot, that he would receive the caucus nomination.—The thing had gone so far that it was looked upon as a fixed fact, and the Republican party received the curses of those of the Democratic party who so much abhor the principles of Mr. Wilmot. But when the caucus met, things took a sudden and unexpected change. The vote on first ballot stood Cowen 26, Wilmot 23, and on each succeeding ballot, Cowen gained. Upon the fifth ballot he had 49 votes, and on the sixth, 58 votes, whilst Mr. Wilmot did not exceed 38 votes on any ballot.

The caucus also nominated Hon. Henry D. Moore, of Philadelphia, for State Treasurer, to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Slifer, who goes into Gov. Curtin's Cabinet, and also for the ensuing year.

The election for U. S. Senator came off in the House at 12 o'clock to-day. Mr. Cowen recived 98 votes, the entire opposition, and Hon. Henry D. Foster 35 votes, the entire vote of the Democracy. The election of Mr. Cowen appears to give general satisfaction here.

The Senate was invited over to the Hall of the House of Representatives, this forenoon, to listen to the reading of Gen. Jackson's message, and appeal to the people of South Carolina in 1832. A good sound document, and very applicable to the crises of the present day.

A petition signed by eleven thousand names, was presented in the Senate to-day, by Senator Smith, of Philadelphia, praying for the repeal of the 95th and 96th, sections of the Penal Code.

A resolution was also presented in the Senate to-day, refering that portion of the Presidents message which refers to laws on our Statute Books, which may in any way conflict with the laws of our Federal Government, to the Judiciary Committee. An amendment was offered to refer it to a select Committee, but was negatived by a tie vote. The motion then recurring upon the original resolution, which, after some considerable debate, or rather proclaiming of views, was agreed to by a vote of 28 to 2, there being only thirty Senators present.

Yesterday, Senators Clymer and Schindel delivered eulogies on Benjamin Nunemacher, who died in May last, at the time holding the position of Senator from Berks county.

The military are out to-day, and a salute of thirty-three rounds were fired from the Arsenal in honor of Maj. Anderson, in appreciation of his highly commendable conduct, in removing his forces to Fort Sumpter.

I see by the latest despatches, that re-inforcements have been sent to Maj. Anderson, and by this time are in the harbor of Charleston.

I see that some of Governor Curtin's expectants are already on hand. The next great excitement will be the Inauguration of the Governor, when I may write you again.

Yours, OCCASIONAL, Jr.

Actual Condition of the South.

It is seldom that we can learn from those who are surrounded by the secessionists what are the actual position of affairs in South Carolina. A letter, said to be from a leading citizen of Charleston, has been received by a gentleman in Philadelphia, in which the writer draws the following gloomy picture:—You ask me for my candid opinion of our condition, and I will venture to give it to you. I could not publicly utter the sentiments of this letter without risking my life. The leaders of the Convention, like their prototypes of the French Revolution, are beginning to be terrified at the fruits of the seed they have sown; but, as yet, the time for reaction is not here. The people have been infuriated through the efforts of the politicians, and now, like a Parisian mob, are pushing their captains and lieutenants into the very midst of the danger. What may bring these men to their senses is the tax system they have adopted.—When a per capita sum is levied upon negro slaves, those who began and have driven forward this miserable business, will feel, in their own purses, that which is now afflicting men in my situation. They will be brought to their senses; for it stands to reason that we can no more maintain a permanent military force without immense and burdensome taxation than we can eat our own cotton, or trade with Europe with Uncle Sam's fleet in our harbor. It is impossible for this state of things to continue without a collision—and when that comes, God help our people! The rivalry between Charleston and Savannah has always been great, but that which was merely commercial competition and jealousy before secession, is now dread and anger. When our port is closed, Savannah may be kept open, a result that is not unlikely, considering that a large number of moderate men are returned to the Convention which is to assemble in that city. I think the Republicans in Congress can afford to come down from their elevation—particularly in view of the condition of those in the cotton states, who, like myself, look upon the entire course of the fire-eaters with horror. When we have been fully surrounded by starvation, taxation and other troubles, it may be too late to turn the tide now surging on all sides. Anything practical from the Republicans would be used with excellent effect.

Much as I have heard of foolish conduct, I have never seen anything so silly and childish as that of the men who control our Convention. They are not statesmen—they are lunatics, and seem to have no thought of the morrow. Their whole design is one of haste and hate, and even you, who have your opinion of our fire-eaters, would be surprised to see how much more indiscreet and inexperienced they are than you have believed them to be. These men appear to forget that, while they may prevent an American man-of-war from crossing our bar, and coming into our port, and enforcing the United States laws, they at the same time exclude all commerce from us. The agitation made a few days ago, that the entrance to the port should be destroyed, is a part of their foolish policy. If, like the Russians at Savastopol, we fill our harbor with obstacles, we therefore, not only defy the Government, but starve ourselves. Our people seem to be on a frolic, and probably when they get sober will also get sane.

It is clear that unless the Federal Government shows its teeth, and tells these men that it will enforce these laws made in pursuance of the Constitution, they will go on until they wrap the whole of the Gulf States in a general conflagration. I forbear describing what our condition in South Carolina would then be. How would they get on in Georgia, with a minority inside party in favor of the Union, suspected by the majority, and all their movements watched, not to speak of the other horrible reflections, that the negroes themselves may catch the alarm, and that thousands heretofore dependent upon the North for supplies of produce, pork, beef, &c., will be unable to get these necessaries of life? It is my daily prayer, however, that as the storm approaches, and seems to be inevitable, some good man in the Republican party will rise up in his place in Congress, and, at the risk of losing his political position, offer such concessions as will enable us to live on happily and peacefully for years together. I can assure you that if this is done, many who favored secession at the start, but who now see that it is likely to end in a general wreck, will be too glad to escape, and will join with me in thanks to God that we have been rescued from indescribable horrors.

Evidently Scared.

We copy the following from the Uniontown, (Md.) Weekly Press, the editor of which is evidently scared, and probably not without cause:

With hearts overwhelmed with grief, we present our readers with the current news. Our feelings are too intense to write and our hand trembles, not with fear, but deep emotion, when we see in every thing we read the ruin of our country. We present for a leader this week, the appalling fact, that our country's flag has been dishonored, not by a foreign hand. No! no! but by her own people. They have flung away the ensign of greatness and glory and Union and substituted in its place, the flag of a petty confederacy, the proud emblem of secession. And the end is not yet. In the name of Heaven, we beg our fellow citizens to pause one moment and see where they are drifting, or we may ere long read our country's doom in the midnight glare of burning villages or in the death agonies of dying patriots. The old War Chief of our Country stands ready to unsheath the sword in her behalf. Like a true warrior and a brave man he offers his services first to his President and then to his country. But who shall he fight. Men raised on the same soil, brothers of a common country, sons of the same illustrious sires. Oh, Heaven! avert so dreadful a calamity. But we cannot write.—The citizens of our sister state have laid hands upon Government property in the South, eight hundred thousand dollars warth of Bonds have been abstracted from the Public Treasury and everywhere there seems to be the dread forebodings, of an impending storm.

Important Message from the President.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9, 1860.

The following special message from the President was laid before the House to-day:

The President says at the opening of the session he called attention to the dangers to the Union, and recommended such measures of relief as he believed would have the effect of tranquilizing the country and saving it from the perils in which it had been needlessly and unfortunately placed. His convictions then expressed remain unchanged.

He regrets to say that matters instead of being better, are still worse, and hope is diminished. Alluding to South Carolina, he says he has no other alternative but to collect the revenue and protect the public property as far as practicable.

He appeals to Congress to say, in their might, that "THE UNION SHALL AND MUST BE PRESERVED," by all Constitutional means. He recommends Congress to devote themselves to prompt action with a view to peace. He, the President, had warned his country of the danger. He felt that the duty devolving upon him had been faithfully though imperfectly performed, and he was himself conscious that he had meant well for his country.

A division of the Territory in the line of 36 degrees 30 minutes, is suggested, as calculated to produce an adjustment. It was an imputation on the members to say they will hesitate for a moment. The danger is upon us. In several of the States the Forts and Arsenals of the U. S. have been seized by aggressive acts. Congress should endeavor to give the difficulties a peaceful solution. He states the reasons why he had refrained from sending troops to Charleston harbor, believing this would have furnished a pretext, if not a provocation, on the part of South Carolina.

U. S. SENATOR FROM MAINE.—Ex-Governor Morrill, was, on Wednesday, elected Senator in place of Hannibal Hamlin.

PEN AND SCISSORS.

☞ Manifestly Improved—The Singing in the M. E. Church.

☞ The Charleston Mercury extra was printed on satin, on the 20th ult., containing the secession act.

☞ The new State flag of Louisiana has for its motto—"Equality in the Union—or, Independence out of it."

☞ An old lady, named Lucas, of Johnstown, was so severely burned, on Tuesday of last week, that she died in a few hours.

☞ A salute of one hundred guns was fired at Reading on Wednesday afternoon last, in honor of Scott, Cass, and the Union.

☞ A german doctor named Breitlauch, murdered his wife and then committed suicide, at Temperanceville, near Pittsburgh, on Friday last.

☞ The idea suggested by Senator Wade, that in the event of a dissolution of the Union the North would establish a protectorate over Mexico, and ultimately annex it to the United States, is taking root.

☞ We understand that the Brass Band of this place will attend the inauguration of Gov. Curtin, on Tuesday next. We are not aware that any of the military companies from this county intend participating in the display on that occasion.

☞ Five thousand slaves were sent South from Richmond, Va., over the Petersburg road, 5,000 over the Tennesse road, and 2,000 by other channels, during the year 1860. Valued at $1,000 each, $12,000,000 have been received in cash by the South.

☞ The Vicksburg (Miss.) Whig says:—"At the lowest possible estimate, it will cost $25,000,000 to maintain the State of Mississippi out of the Union. All of this will have to be raised by direct taxation on her people. Are they ready for any such emergency? Let the people remember that the revolutionists are determined to perpetrate this great outrage on them."

☞ POPULAR REPRESENTATIVE.—The following is a copy of the certificate of the return judges of Pike and Monroe counties for member of the Assembly:

Charles D. Brodhead,	3,144
Abraham Edinger,	1
David D. Walton,	1
Henry S. Mott,	1
Francis Keller,	2

☞ Strong in the Cause.—It is said that a certain Southern gentleman having been asked if he should want a supply of ice during the coming summer season, replied indignantly in the negative, declaring that the men of the South would drink boiling-hot water upon the Fourth of July before they would receive or use any of the free soil ice of the States of the North.

☞ Edwin Forrest, the eminent tragedian, is dramatic in expression as well as action. In a letter to a friend in Boston he says: "Great God! in what a melancholy condition is our country now! An inveradicat curse begin at the very root of the heart that harbors a single thought that favors disunion! May God, in His wisdom and strength, avert the overwhelming evil!"

☞ Jackson Testimony.—It is related by Mr. Parton, in his biography of General Jackson, that when the question was asked him a few weeks before his death, "what he would have done with Calhoun and other nullifiers if they had kept on?" "Hang them, sir, as high as Haman." was the instantaneous reply; "they should have been a terror to all traiters to all time, and posterity would have pronounced it the best act of my life."

Piles in Both Forms Cured!

READ THIS.

"I can only account for my present sound health, from the constant, though moderate use of BERRIAVES HOLLAND BITTERS—having from my youth suffered, at intervals from Piles, in both forms, sometimes so severely as to completely prostrate me. I have for several months past, though subject to loss of sleep, and unusual physical effort, been entirely free from any symptom of this distressing disease; while my general health is very much improved."

Persons doubting the authenticity of this certificate, are requested to call upon or communicate with the proprietors. They will take pleasure not only in referring them to its author, but to many others who have used the Holland Bitters for the same affection, with equal success.

☞ The peculiarities of the female constitution and the various to which the sex is subjected, demand an occasional recourse to stimulants. It is important, however, that these shall be of a harmless nature, and at the same time accomplish the desired end. Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters is the very article. Its effects in all cases of debility are almost magical. It restores the tone of the digestive organs, infuses fresh vitality into the whole system, and gives that cheerfulness to the temperament, which is the most valuable of feminine attractions. The proprietors feel flattered from the fact that many of the most prominet medical gentlemen in the Union have bestowed enconiums upon the Bitters, the virtues of which they have frequently tested and acknowledged. There are numerous counterfeits offered for sale, all of which are destitute of merit, and positively injurious to the system.

Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion.

Another Great Cure effected by Barhave's Holland Bitters.

The wife of Pieter De Witte, living in Holland Town, Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, suffered much from Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion. She had been under a physician's care for some time, but the disease seemed to baffle even his skill. She purchased some HOLLAND BITTERS at our office, which has given tone to her stomach; her appetite and strength are returning, and we firmly believe that this is another great cure effected by your medicine.

We have still to record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. One thing you can rely upon, what we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true. J. QUINTUS,

(Ed. Sheboygan Nieuwsbode, Sheboygan, Wis.)

PRACTICAL CALCULATOR.

ROHRER'S PRACTICAL CALCULATOR,

A Book of Plain Rules and Calculations for Business Operations, by Martin M. Rohrer, Practical Surveyor and Conveyancer. New Edition, published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

This work contains 204 pages, and upwards of 500 Rules and Examples, entirely and thoroughly practical, such as arise every day in the common pursuits of Business. It has already passed through a number of editions in rapid succession, and is pronounced by all classes of business men to be the handiest book of reference, pertaining to calculations, that has ever been published.

Every example in the book is worked out in full and stated in a plain manner, so that when a parallel case arises, those referring to the work will find no difficulty in solving it; in a word, the general arrangement of the CALCULATOR is simple, that any one who knows how to add, subtract, multiply and divide, can easily solve any ordinary example that arises in business, or arrive at the true result of any estimate required.

The chief aim of the author has been to eschew theory and philosophy in figures, aiming only at facts and simplicity, believing that business men care little about spending time in discussing the philosophy of rules, or the science of figures, deeming it sufficient for their purpose to be able at a moment, by reference, to arrive at the true result. The CALCULATOR differs in this respect from all other Arithmetics of the day and kindred works—it is a key to practical business calculations—it is, in the hands of the business man, what the key to mathematical works is in the hands of the teacher in the school room—it facilitates time and insures correctness.

THE WORK TREATS OF THE

Measurement of Land, of Lumber, of Brick and Brick Work, of stone and stone work, of grain and grain bins, of coal and coal bins, of wood, of solids, of liquids, of circular, square or irregular vessels, of cisterns and vats, of roofing, of plasterer's, painter's, glazier's, paver's, plumber's, paper hanger's and upholsterers' work. It treats of currency and of foreign and domestic exchange, of the decimal system, of reduction and its extended application to business, of simple and compound interest, and their entire application to business transactions, with the laws and usages governing and regulating the same, together with numerous commercial forms—of legal tender, of partial payment on notes, of banking and bank discount, of equation of payment and of partnership accounts, of assessment of taxes, of weights and measures, of square and cubic measure, of the square root and its application to business of surfaces, of excavation, and of many other important practical matters not within the scope of an advertisement to mention.

IT IS JUST THE BOOK FOR THE

Farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, the artizan, or the professional man. It has proven a valuable auxiliary to the lawyer, the justice of the peace, the conveyancer, and real estate broker, to the assessor, the banker, the civil engineer and the surveyor, to the carpenter and bricklayer, to the stonemason and the plasterer, to the paper hanger and upholsterer, to the paver and the tiler, &c., &c.; each and all will find it adapted to their various wants better than any book published.

☞ Mailed (post paid) to any part of the United States, upon receipt of the money. Price of a single copy, in cloth, 60 cents, or two copies for $1,00. Bound in pocket-book form, morocco, $1,00 per copy.

The interest of John Irwin and his wife in a tract of 147 acres of land, in Logan township, having a small log house thereon.

The interest of Jesse R. Crawford and his wife in four lots of ground in Gaysport borough.

BOLD THEFT.—On Saturday last, a seedy looking chap went into the Superintendent's Office, in this place, for the purpose of soliciting a pass over the railroad. Not finding the person who could confer the favor he sought, he passed out again, but not without making his trip pay, as he took with him a coat belonging to Mr. Irons, which happened to be hanging on a nail in one of the rooms through which he passed. Mr. I. missed his coat shortly after the gentleman left and soon put Constable Ely on his track. He was overhauled a short distance below town, with the coat on his arm, and brough before Esquire Cherry, who committed him to the "Lock Up." He appeared a little intoxicated while in the Supt's Office, but feigned to be very drunk when arrested. In view of his condition, Mr. I. did not proceed against him, after recovering his coat.

AROUND AGAIN.—On yesterday afternoon we had the pleasure of taking by the hand our welcome friend, Mr. Jonathan Focht, Colporteur of the American Tract Society, who is now about to commence his annual canvass of Altoona, for the purpose of selling the publications of the above society. His books are all valuable, containing nothing but information which will make the reader wise and happy. They are also printed on clear type, excellent paper, and are substantially bound. Mr. F. sells his books at a lower price than they can be had at any book establishment in the country or city. We bespeak for him the cordial welcome and liberal patronage of our citizens, as the cause in which he labors is a good one and worthy of their hearty co-operation.

☞ The Hollidaysburg Fencibles fired a salute of thirty-three guns, on Tuesday morning last, in honor of the Union, and of Major Anderson, the Hero of Fort Sumpter. We understand that both the Fencibles and Juniata Rifles, passed resolutions endorsing the action of Major Anderson in evacuating Fort Moultrie and taking possession of Fort Sumpter, and declaring their willingness to defend the Flag of our Union.

INFANTICIDE.—On Wednesday morning last, a child, apparently three or four days old, was found in the lot in the rear of the Lutheran Church, in this place, with its throat cut from ear to ear. An inquest was held upon the body at the office of Dr. J. T. Christy, where a verdict of "murder, by some person unknown to the Jury," was rendered. A colored girl, who has been living at the Altoona House, was suspected of being the mother of the child and its murderer. She was forthwith arrested and brought before Esquire Cherry, when she confessed the crime. She was committed to jail to await her trial at the next term of Court, when it is hoped she will receive the full extent of the law and the reward due such a hellish deed.

MATHEMATICAL PUZZLE.—"All Paris and the Departments" have been worried for the last month over the following published seriously in the Monde Illustre. Draw a series of lines thus:

Then with three strokes of the finger, and without returning upon any line already touched, wipe them all out. All the slates, dead-walls and shop-doors of Paris are now sacrificed to this interesting exercise in mathematics.

☞ We acknowledge a visit on Thursday last, from friend Kurtz, of the Central Press, Bellefonte. He looks, talks and acts like a clever, wholesouled fellow, such as all editors are (with a few exceptions). We promise him a return visit as soon as the Tyrone and Lock Haven Railroad is completed, as it is not likely we shall travel in a stage coach to see him, unless we are compelled to.

☞ The Whig says that it has learned, from what may be considered reliable authority, that the Central Bank, of Hollidaysburg, will soon be resuscitated by gentlemen of capital, and in whom the public can place the utmost reliance. Can the Whig tell us whether the new proprietors will redeem the notes of the Bank now held by our citizens?

LECTURE.—We understand that the Bishop of Pittsburgh will lecture in the Catholic Church, in this place, some time this month. No doubt timely notice will be given of the day and subject of the lecture From what we have learned of this distinguished divine, we can, in anticipation, promise a rich intellectual treat to all who will attend the lecture of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Domenec.

☞ A heavy press of job work, for some weeks past, has prevented us from giving that attention to our paper which it should have had and which we desire to give it, and the crowded condition of our columns, with advertisements, precludes our giving that variety which would make it interesting. We hope in a short time to be able to give it closer attention.

☞ The President's Fast Day was not very well observed in this place. All the stores and places of business were open, with the exception of the Post Office and Mr. Shoemaker's store.—Religious services were held in the Presbyterian Church, and a sermon appropriate to the occasion delivered by Rev. A. B. Clark, the pastor.

☞ The Pittsburgh True Press has been discontinued and a new paper, called the Evening Gazette, is now issued from the same office, by S. Riddle & Co. It is independent in politics.

☞ We notice that our Senator, Col, L. W. Hall, has been appointed on the following committees, viz:—Judiciary, Corporations, Estates and Escheats, the latter of which he is chairman.

A Benefactress.

The following is an extract from a letter written by the C. Z., Weiser, to the 'German Reformed Messenger" at Chambersburg, Penn.:—

There was a woman in the public eye, whose name had all along been associated, in our mind, with the "Yankee," "Quack," and "Humbug." But it is no longer, and we desire to wrest her name from all such suspicious association in all other minds. Whatever notions we may have of womanly delicacy and propriety, we will all admit, that woman alone is the Nurse—the good Nurse. Whether we shall have Female Physicians or not, is a question which must be decided by time and principle, and not as a matter of taste. Pride, prejudice, caprice and custom, may as well behave themselves, for if there is really a want, there will also be a supply—if there be "a calling," there will be a COMING. Nature and Human Society are always self-supplying, and though Art and Fashion may hinder, they can not prevent.

Mrs. Winslow does not want to treat you GENTLEMEN! Nor does she prescribe a regimen for your wives; but modestly appears as a messenger of health and happiness to your infants in the cradle. Is there anything improper in that? A Nurse of "ten years'" experience can boldly say what is or is not good for a babe—and ought to be listened to. God speed her, on her humble but happy mission. She is the most successful physician and most effectual benefactress our little one enjoyed—her doting parents not excepted. Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Suzy" to say, "A BLESSING ON MRS. WINSLOW"—for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking and teething siege. We confirm every word set forth in the PROSPECTUS. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. Away with your "Cordial," "Paregoric," "Drops," "Laudanum," and every other "Narcotic," by which the babe is drugged into stupidity, and rendered dull and idiotic for life!

We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power, we should make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant Race.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

'ardly Realized.

Hi 'ad 'n 'orrible 'eadache this hafternoon, hand I stopped into the hapothecaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says he. "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

☞ Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anæmia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is very common, being unusually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the unerring index.

BRIDGET.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of Prepared Pills,—but I'm thinking that's not just it naither; but perhaps ye'll be afther knowing what it is. Yo see she's nigh dead and gone with the Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relaived her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarther and give me the Pills and don't be all day about it aither.

Constipation of Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abscesses, Dysentary, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidiuous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache?

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes. I wish you would send more so that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggist. Call for Cephalic Pills. I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

☞ Over excitement, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of mind and body incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

☞ Did you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the severed brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purpose you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with pefect safety without making any change of diret, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the city of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate.—The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier:

ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1830 to 1850; and ten thousand cases of Maderia, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand that Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums reducing all inflammation will allay pain and spasmodic action, and is sure to regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed, in a single instance, to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know," after ten years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful nurses in New England, and has been used with never-failing success in thousands of cases.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause.—We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be sure—yes, absolutely sure—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world, and by G. W. Kessler and A. Roush, druggists, Altoona. Price 25 cents per bottle.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

READ CAREFULLY!

The Genuine highly concentrated Boerhave's Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, and retailed at ONE DOLLAR per bottle, or six bottles for FIVE DOLLARS. The great demand for this truly celebrated Medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.

PROF. L. MILLER'S

HAIR INVIGORATOR!!

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning gray.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections at the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriently, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thining, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have used their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being, per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of the Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper; also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

Wholesale Depot, 56 Dey St., and sold by all the principal Merchants and Druggists throughout the world.

Liberal discount to purchasers by the quantity.

I also desire to present to the American Public my

New and Improved Instantaneous

MOFFAT'S

LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINE HAVES NOW been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss or Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill Temper, Anxiety, Langour, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence: all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS, and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, salleyclouds, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these medicines, was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicines alone.

FEVER & AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.

BILLIOUS FEVERS are LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General debility, loss of appetite and diseases of females—the medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description:—Kings Evil and Scrofula. In its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system, all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparation of Sarsaparilla.

PILLS & IRON

An aperient and stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Misconstruction, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, Whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible.—Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from a protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested by Female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and the complication of nervous and dyspeptic ailments to air and exercise, for which the physician has no remedy.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting nor overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which so usually indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most carefully balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly afflicting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported both as allaying the pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In intermittent Fevers it must ever surely be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its application in the settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING

Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires

than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it enters the cape. There is no trouble from smoke as that necessary and often annoying exhalation is also consumed in the body of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming charged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves.

HOSTETTER'S

STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so assoribingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, supernannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

☞ CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South America, and Germany.
